

JUNE 14, 2020 VOL. 1 ISSUE 7

This Week's Pictures and Stories

Bugged Out

A local art group is looking for people to share their creative talents again with The June Bug Project. I made this picture the other day with my cell phone and thought about this wonderful project that brings people together despite this horrible virus.

Venango County Black Lives Matter

The Venango County Black Lives Matter group held a peaceful rally in Franklin's Bandstand Park Saturday. After a series of speakers, nearly 300 attendees took to the middle of Liberty Street to march from the courthouse to Franklin City Hall. Events like these are important for cities of all sizes as we work toward change to make our country better for all its residents.

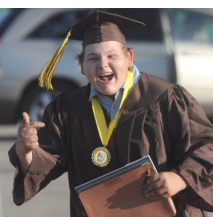

Summer Food Program

The Children and Youth Services program, the Truancy Outreach Program of Venango County began a Summer Food Service Program at the start on June. In the first week, they served over 1,100 breakfasts and lunches at 22 different sites throughout the county. The meals are free to any child 18 and under.

Pictures Now Available for Purchase

There have been several requests in the past few weeks from folks wanting to purchase pictures. As time allows, slideshows of pictures will be loaded into a Zenfolio account, which gives people several purchasing options. This week graduation and softball pictures were loaded. Thank you to those who have ordered already.

Find stories throughout the week on the Eight & 322 site

Eight & 322 publishes pictures and stories throughout the week. Here is a sampling features on the site in the past seven day.

- Sometimes I find the best stories because of a picture. This is how I learned the amazing story of recent Titusville graduate Teddy Muir.
- The Oil City Main Street program kicked off its summer Music on the Square concert series this past Thursday with a performance by Billy and the Neptunes.
- The June Artist of the Month continues with more unique pieces of work by Oil City resident Joann Wheeler.
- This week we continue the Where is Venango County sponsored by the Franklin Retail Association. All those who correctly identify the location of the photo are entered to win a $10 gift certificate.

Eight & 322 is an online publication focused on telling the stories of the communities in the northwest region of Pennsylvania. To subscribe to the Sunday Edition newsletter, email richardsayerphotography@gmail.com.

Email addresses will be used for weekly email distributions only and will not be shared with any other business. To be removed from the list, reply to the email address listed above and put Unsubscribe in the subject.