This Week's Pictures and Stories

From Pond to Podium

A Centerville girl and her family hopped into action to save the annual Frog Jump contest and raised money to the Townville Volunteer Fire Department. The annual Crawford County event had a new location and all the amphibian mayhem that has made it a tradition for decades.

Almost Perfect Timing

This sunset caught my eye as I was leaving the Rocky Grove High School graduation held on a rainy Thursday evening at the Valley Grove Elementary School. The cap toss was only about 30 minutes before this. It was a near miss of a beautiful moment and beautiful sunset, a case of almost perfect timing.

I Love Covering Graduations

Patience paid off for Rocky Grove and Titusville high schools. The districts were able to hold modified outdoor graduation ceremonies after Venango and Crawford counties moved into the green phase. On Sunday, pages for each updated with slideshows of additional photographs.

Tuesday's Primary

Eight & 322 publishes pictures and stories throughout the week. Here is a sampling features on the site in the past seven day.

- The Central Elementary School teachers and administrators helped their students say Aloha to the school years and Aloha to summer.
- Oil City resident Joann Wheeler is the featured Artist of the Month for June. A champion of Oil City's art scene for many years, Joann's pieces have a depth that pulls you in and doesn't let go easily.
