Rivalries Heat Up

Locals Get Behind Their Candidates

Following the well-attended Republican National Convention rally in Oil City, conversations circulated about one of the photographs in particular. On the flipside, Venango County Democrats are ramping up their efforts to gather more attention for their candidate.

Route 8 Showdown Set for Friday

Game starts at 7 p.m.

The Franklin and Oil City football teams are slated to meet for two games this season, bookends of their shortened season. Eight & 322 intends to be there with cameras in hand.

'Don't Eat the Butterflies'

Outdoor columnist Anna Applegate shared a plethora of beautiful butterfly pictures, including a few from a less than preferred position, in this week's edition of The Nature of Things. Make sure to give yourself lots of time to peruse the photos and check up on some of her earlier pieces about her wild crew of creatures.

Artist of the Month

Sue Buck is September's Artist of the Month. This week she shares with us some of her earliest and thoughts behind the pieces. Throughout the month, she will take us through her entire career as and artist and educator.
